

Proposed Whole Life Custody (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to give Scottish courts the power to sentence the worst criminals to custody for the rest of their lives. The consultation runs from 29 May 2019 to 30 August 2019. All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. Aim and approach

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of giving Scottish courts the power to sentence the worst criminals to custody for the rest of their lives?

Fully opposed

Please explain the reasons for your response.

It would be truly disastrous for the taxpayer and the prisoner to even consider such a travesty for our justice system. In America, where limitless sentences exist, the reoffending rate over 8 years is 49.3%. Whereas in Norway, where the maximum sentence is 21 years, has a reoffending rate of just 16%, the lowest in Europe. Surely if we want to put money towards keeping people from committing crimes in the first place such as proper counselling and social services we cannot spend hundreds and thousands of pounds of our hard earned money into paying people to kill other humans. Unless you will personally pay for every single life sentence in Scotland I will never support you in any election ever. You have failed your constituents by bringing this letter up and I hope you reconsider your actions and the impact that they will have on all of our lives

Q2. How would introducing Whole Life Custody Sentences affect your level of confidence in the Scottish justice system?

Significantly less confident in the justice system

Please explain the reasons for your response

We cannot have a justice system that believes in such an injustice system

Q3. Which types of murder should have a Whole Life Custody Sentence as the starting point for sentencing? (Choose all that apply)

None of the above

Please explain the reasons for your response

No one should ever face a life sentence without parole intact no one should have to face the barbarity of any kind of life sentence

Q4. Which sexual offences should have a Whole Life Custody Sentence as the starting point for sentencing? (Choose all that apply)

None of the above

Please explain the reasons for this response.

See reasons for last answer given

Q5. Are there any other types of offence (other than murder or certain sexual offences) which should attract a Whole Life Custody Sentence as a 'starting point' for sentencing?

No- no offences (including murder or sexual offences) should attract a Whole Life Custody Sentence

Please explain the reason for your response.

See previous response

Q6. Which of the following best expresses your view on whether whole life custody should be a sentencing option for younger offenders?

Whole life custody should not be an option for any offender, regardless of age

Please explain the reasons for your response.

No one should be exposed to such a horror as a life sentence especially not a child

Financial Implications

Q7. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have? Please explain the reasons for your response.

An enormous chunk out of the national budget would be taken by this proposed bill. We would be paying to keep murderers and rapist in a guarded hotel

Equalities

Q8. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, maternity and pregnancy, marriage and civil partnership, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Negative

Please explain the reasons for your response.

An incredibly negative impact

Sustainability

Q9. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably, i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

No

Please explain the reasons for your response.

This bill would have a catastrophic impact on both the people of your constituency and of the whole nation.

General

Q10. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal?

The only suggestion I have for you if you ever want to be re elected in any capacity is to scrap this bill immediately and sign an official apology
