

Proposed Whole Life Custody (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to give Scottish courts the power to sentence the worst criminals to custody for the rest of their lives. The consultation runs from 29 May 2019 to 30 August 2019. All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document. Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer. All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response. Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded. Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here: Consultation document Privacy Notice

Aim and approach

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of giving Scottish courts the power to sentence the worst criminals to custody for the rest of their lives?

Neutral (neither support nor oppose)

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I believe that prison has a dual role and that the rehabilitation of the offender has been neglected by the establishment for some time. The worst protagonists about this are the Scottish Conservatives who want to lick everyone up for longer, but don't say where the money will come from to do so.

Q2. How would introducing Whole Life Custody Sentences affect your level of confidence in the Scottish justice system?

Neither more nor less confident in the justice system

Please explain the reasons for your response

The premise of this survey seems to be to gauge support for a policy which is a simplistic solution to a complex issue!! This needs a fact based approach not the Scottish Conservative - Willie Whitelaw type solution.

Q3. Which types of murder should have a Whole Life Custody Sentence as the starting point for sentencing? (Choose all that apply)

None of the above

Please explain the reasons for your response

Again where is rehabilitation of the offender in this scheme!!

Q4. Which sexual offences should have a Whole Life Custody Sentence as the starting point for sentencing? (Choose all that apply)

Please explain the reasons for this response.

Again where is rehabilitation of the offender in this scheme of choices?

Q5. Are there any other types of offence (other than murder or certain sexual offences) which should attract a Whole Life Custody Sentence as a 'starting point' for sentencing?

Unsure

Please explain the reason for your response.

Again where is rehabilitation of the offender in this range of offences!!

Q6. Which of the following best expresses your view on whether whole life custody should be a sentencing option for younger offenders?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response.

As I have pointed out this approach to me is too simplistic - where does rehabilitation of the offender fit in!!

Financial Implications

Q7. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have? Please explain the reasons for your response.

Locking more and more people up for full life tariffs is cost prohibitive!! Rehabilitation of the offender needs to be better developed!!

Equalities

Q8. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, maternity and pregnancy, marriage and civil partnership, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Again the relentless simplistic and populist drive to lock people up and throw away the key especially by the Scottish Conservatives policy doesn't solve problems. The sentencing system in its entirety should be linked to the drive to rehabilitate and better educate the offender.

Sustainability

Q9. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably, i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

No

Please explain the reasons for your response.

The policy will be too expensive and unsustainable!!

General

Q10. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal?

It is a simplistic policy poorly thought through by the Scottish Conservatives for effect rather than a serious idea!! I will / would campaign against it!!
