

Proposed Whole Life Custody (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to give Scottish courts the power to sentence the worst criminals to custody for the rest of their lives. The consultation runs from 29 May 2019 to 30 August 2019. All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document. Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer. All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response. Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded. Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here: Consultation document Privacy Notice

Aim and approach

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of giving Scottish courts the power to sentence the worst criminals to custody for the rest of their lives?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I am concerned that this could be abused and those who could be rehabilitated not given the opportunity after an appropriate time in prison.

Q2. How would introducing Whole Life Custody Sentences affect your level of confidence in the Scottish justice system?

Slightly less confident in the justice system

Please explain the reasons for your response

I would need to see the proposed bill being applied appropriately.

Q3. Which types of murder should have a Whole Life Custody Sentence as the starting point for sentencing? (Choose all that apply)

Other (please specify)

Please explain the reasons for your response

Each case needs to be assessed individually and kept under review.

Q4. Which sexual offences should have a Whole Life Custody Sentence as the starting point for sentencing? (Choose all that apply)

Other (please specify)

Please explain the reasons for this response.

Again this needs revising on a case by case basis. Sexual offences are not acceptable on any level but we need to find the motivation behind the act and look at rehabilitation. Is poor mental health an issue for example? I agree with whole life sentences but each case must be reviewed and assessed by a diverse panel of professionals.

Q4. Which sexual offences should have a Whole Life Custody Sentence as the starting point for sentencing? (Choose all that apply)

Q5. Are there any other types of offence (other than murder or certain sexual offences) which should attract a Whole Life Custody Sentence as a 'starting point' for sentencing?

Unsure

Please explain the reason for your response.

Again everything should be assessed on an individual basis

Q6. Which of the following best expresses your view on whether whole life custody should be a sentencing option for younger offenders?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Individual case review

Financial Implications

Q7. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have? Please explain the reasons for your response.

I have no information regarding costs and potential savings so can make no comment regarding this but money should never be our motivation.

Equalities

Q8. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, maternity and pregnancy, marriage and civil partnership, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Neutral (neither positive nor negative)

Please explain the reasons for your response.

I have no idea of the impact on equality

Sustainability

Q9. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably, i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

No

Please explain the reasons for your response.

My understanding is that it always costs more to keep someone incarcerated then support them in the community

General

Q10. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal?

Think carefully before letting this go ahead. It has the potential to be misused
