

Proposed Whole Life Custody (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to give Scottish courts the power to sentence the worst criminals to custody for the rest of their lives. The consultation runs from 29 May 2019 to 30 August 2019. All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document. Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer. All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response. Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded. Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here: Consultation document Privacy Notice

I confirm that I have read and understood the Privacy Notice attached to this consultation which explains how my personal data will be used

Aim and approach

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of giving Scottish courts the power to sentence the worst criminals to custody for the rest of their lives?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Rapists, pedophiles and murderers DESTROY LIVES. So long as families of people murdered, or people who have been sexually assaulted know the person who ripped apart their life can be allowed to roam free, how the [redacted] do you think we can ever rest easily? [redacted] the lot of them. You CANNOT rehab such "people". Lock them away. Keep them away. For the rest of their lives And perhaps if we have such a deterrant people will think twice before murdering and raping.

Q2. How would introducing Whole Life Custody Sentences affect your level of confidence in the Scottish justice system?

Significantly more confident in the justice system

Please explain the reasons for your response

Scottish justice is so weak if it were my horse I would have it euthanized

Q3. Which types of murder should have a Whole Life Custody Sentence as the starting point for sentencing? (Choose all that apply)

The murder of two or more persons, where each murder involves any of (1) a substantial degree of premeditation or planning, (2) the abduction of the victim, or (3) sexual or sadistic conduct

Q3. Which types of murder should have a Whole Life Custody Sentence as the starting point for sentencing? (Choose all that apply)

The murder of a child if involving the abduction of the child or sexual or sadistic motivation

The murder of a police or prison officer in the course of their duty

A murder carried out for the purpose of advancing a political, religious, racial or ideological cause

A murder by an offender previously convicted of murder

Other (please specify)

Please explain the reasons for your response

ALL murder. And pedophiles and rapists too Manslaughter is different. Accidents happen. Murder of all kinds, rapists and pedos should be locked away until they die and NEVER let out, even if they are "terminally ill" It was a bloody disgrace the Libyan who bombed the pan am flight which exploded over Lockerbie was ever let out

Q4. Which sexual offences should have a Whole Life Custody Sentence as the starting point for sentencing? (Choose all that apply)

Rape of two or more persons

Rape of a young child

Sexual assault on a young child by penetration

Causing a young child to participate in a sexual activity

Other (please specify)

Please explain the reasons for this response.

Rape of any person even once. I was raped. [redacted]

Q5. Are there any other types of offence (other than murder or certain sexual offences) which should attract a Whole Life Custody Sentence as a 'starting point' for sentencing?

No- only murder and certain sexual offences should attract a Whole Life Custody Sentence

Please explain the reason for your response.

these are the crimes that destroy lives.

Q6. Which of the following best expresses your view on whether whole life custody should be a sentencing option for younger offenders?

Whole life custody should be an option for any adult offender (aged 16 or over) or for children over the age of criminal responsibility (at the time the offence was committed)

Please explain the reasons for your response.

We should also prosecute parents who raise rapists and murderers if their children were under age at the time of the crime. Parents have one job, and that is to raise a decent person. If they cannot do that then 1. Punish them 2. Supervise them closely with their other children. If they have [redacted] up one so much they rape and murder then they cannot be trusted with other children

Financial Implications

Q7. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have? Please explain the reasons for your response.

As if my previous answers haven't been clear enough? Instil confidence, save victims of the worst crimes and their families the worst possible heartache and worry imaginable

Equalities

Q8. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, maternity and pregnancy, marriage and civil partnership, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Who gives a [redacted]? A criminal is a criminal If people don't want to be treated as such then they shouldn't rape or murder I am SICK TO DEATH of people going "but my childhood" and trotting out a sob story. Guess what? Lots of us have [redacted], abusive childhoods. I Did. And I was raped. And you know what? I've not raped or murdered anyone. People need to grow the hell up and take ownership of their lives

Sustainability

Q9. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably, i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

Yes

Please explain the reasons for your response.

YES. Will deter crime. And put people in jail to work. Make prisons sustainable, make them EARN THEIR KEEP. The rest of us have to work for our money to eat and pay rent, why should people who make [redacted] choices and [redacted] of others be exempt? Stop coddling them and make them take responsibility

General

Q10. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal?

Actually take time to read my responses. Please
