

Proposed Whole Life Custody (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Bill to give Scottish courts the power to sentence the worst criminals to custody for the rest of their lives. The consultation runs from 29 May 2019 to 30 August 2019. All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document. Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer. All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response. Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded. Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here: Consultation document Privacy Notice

I confirm that I have read and understood the Privacy Notice attached to this consultation which explains how my personal data will be used

Aim and approach

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of giving Scottish courts the power to sentence the worst criminals to custody for the rest of their lives?

Neutral (neither support nor oppose)

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Each and every case is different and must be considered as so. Your definition, above, of 'worst criminals' leaves lot of room for blanket policy dependent on another's interpretation

Q2. How would introducing Whole Life Custody Sentences affect your level of confidence in the Scottish justice system?

Slightly less confident in the justice system

Please explain the reasons for your response

It gives the Judge's little room for discretion. What does the 'worst cases' mean? where is the borderline? who decides on a blanket policy....at one time we sent people to Australia for stealing rabbits from some rich landowner

Q3. Which types of murder should have a Whole Life Custody Sentence as the starting point for sentencing? (Choose all that apply)

Please explain the reasons for your response

Again each case must be taken one by one....a political killing leading up to freedom in say South Africa or

Q3. Which types of murder should have a Whole Life Custody Sentence as the starting point for sentencing? (Choose all that apply)

in Ireland leading to its independence could well be seen as justifiable, blanket statements are like the policies laid down in Nazi Germany

Q4. Which sexual offences should have a Whole Life Custody Sentence as the starting point for sentencing? (Choose all that apply)

Please explain the reasons for this response.
as the previous answer....

Q5. Are there any other types of offence (other than murder or certain sexual offences) which should attract a Whole Life Custody Sentence as a 'starting point' for sentencing?

Please explain the reason for your response.
Society needs more than blanket statements to relate to Justice at any level

Q6. Which of the following best expresses your view on whether whole life custody should be a sentencing option for younger offenders?

Whole life custody should not be an option for any offender, regardless of age

Please explain the reasons for your response.
if a Judge thinks that someone should not enter the public real after committing a serious offence surely he can give a limit of the time to be spent that would see someone die in custody....blanket is not workable.

Financial Implications

Q7. Taking account of both costs and potential savings, what financial impact would you expect the proposed Bill to have? Please explain the reasons for your response.

the longer the offender stays in prison the more expensive it gets ...surley

Equalities

Q8. What overall impact is the proposed Bill likely to have on equality, taking account of the following protected characteristics (under the Equality Act 2010): age, disability, gender re-assignment, maternity and pregnancy, marriage and civil partnership, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation?

Please explain the reasons for your response.
As I do not in detail the extent of the Equality act 2010 how can I possibly comment? p.s there not any different races we are all humans we are one human race.

Sustainability

Q9. Do you consider that the proposed Bill can be delivered sustainably, i.e. without having likely future disproportionate economic, social and/or environmental impacts?

No

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Because it would have to change as society changes that's why we don't send children halfway across the world for stealing a rabbit now...silly question...

General

Q10. Do you have any other comments or suggestions on the proposal?

Aye Forget it....better things to do with our time than whipping up hate agenda...
